Liability & Property Damage Insurance

Often required by venues, this coverage protects you for damage to the venue and its contents that occurs during your event. It also covers you for bodily injuries that might occur to your wedding party, guests, or vendors, and for alcohol-related accidents. In most cases, your venue will tell you how much coverage to buy to meet their requirements. You should consider adding more if you will be serving alcohol, as you could be held responsible in the event of an alcohol-related accident.
